

Welcome

Over the last few weeks we have all really benefitted from the relaxing of restrictions around visits in and out of care homes.

We've really enjoyed safely welcoming loved ones back into the home for scheduled visits. But it has also been fantastic to resume our visits from the hairdresser and the Music Man who always provides such great entertainment.

We recently had some tiny visitors from Ladybird Childcare and we are thrilled to return to some normality after a very challenging year.

We will continue to encourage visits in and out of the home for our residents in line with guidance so please do not hesitate to contact should you have any queries or wish to schedule a visit.

You'll find us in the garden

With a recent spell of good weather, we have been making the most of every drop of sunshine and spending plenty of time outside.

Long may it continue!

The gardens have been carefully tended to by those amongst us with greenfingers in recent weeks and are looking fantastic. Thank you to everyone who has helped make our gardens look so beautiful.

Out and about

In line with new guidance, our residents have been enjoying safe visits outside of the home.

Sentiment through scent

Martha Rea and Thomas Russell took a trip down memory lane with a Scent Box to stimulate reminiscence with familiar scents such as Brasso and Pears Soap.

Birthday wishes!

We had yet more celebrations in June with a number of birthdays.

Happy birthday to Annie Thompson who turned 75, Wynne Gordon who turned 78 and Julia McAlister who turned 84.

Afternoon tea with Ladybird

Thanks to the boys and girls from Ladybirds Childcare who paid us a visit in June.

We always love their visits and a great time was had by all playing games in the garden.
