

Welcome

We have loved looking back at all the highlights from the last few weeks – it has been a struggle to condense all our news to just one newsletter – so we hope you enjoy this edition as much as we enjoyed putting it together.

Since our last newsletter, we have enjoyed fantastic celebrations over Hallowe'en when the home looked fabulous with all the beautiful decorations made by our residents.

Next stop – Christmas! It won't be long until the tree is up and we're eating some mince pies after singing carols together. And this year, for the first time since 2019 we're really looking forward to having family and loved ones joining us for the festive season.

As always if you have any suggestions for any activities or excursions, within the current guidelines, please do let us know. And of course if you have any queries about the visiting regulations call us on 028 9146 5822.

All Aboard

Last month we all enjoyed a fabulous day out at the Royal Ulster Yacht Club. There were terrific views, delicious food, energetic dancing and lots of fabulous memories made together.

Our Days Out

The sun shone for our day trip to Millisle last month. We ventured 9 miles up the coast to enjoy a beautiful walk and a cup of tea in the sun.

Thanks also to Davy Kerr at Farm Gate Fruit and Veg for having us, and for a go on the tractor!

A piece of cake

We love to hear the 3pm tea trolley coming down the hall at Oakmont Lodge!

With freshly baked breads, cakes, muffins and desserts, it never fails to disappoint.

Pop!

From dogs, to snakes, ducks, birds and trees, we had a lot of fun balloon modelling! This is a skill that could come in handy when decorating the home for special occasions and for teaching others.

Boccia Ball Champions

Congratulations to Malachy Lennon and Anne McKillen, the worthy winners of our hotly contested Boccia Ball Championship!

Birthdays

We have had another busy few weeks with plenty more birthday celebrations and delicious cake.

Once again, many happy returns to those who have celebrated birthdays this month and may all your birthday wishes come true!

Upcoming Events

As well as our usual exercise and entertainment activities, the following is planned for November:

- Plane watching
- Man Cave Pizza and Beer Night
- Remembrance Sunday
- Music with Janet and Noel

Please speak to the team regarding further details about these events and if there are any other activities you would like to suggest.
